

TASF

TAIWANESE AMERICAN
SCHOLARSHIP FUND

2017 Summer Internship in Taiwan Opportunity for Five TASF Scholars

The Taiwanese American Scholarship Fund (TASF) has partnered with the Taiwan Ministry of Education to make the National Cheng Kung University (NCKU) Crouching Tigers Program available to TASF scholars.

The Crouching Tigers Program is a six-week internship designed to prepare students for their professional career goals while gaining unique work experience in Taiwan. The internship program is available to FIVE (past or current) TASF scholars who are at least in his or her 2nd year of college. Internship will take place with the Taiwan Government at the Southern Taiwan Science Park.

Program Details:

- Internship Period: late June – August 2017
- Round-trip airfare, room and board will be provided by the Taiwan Ministry of Education

Deadline: Wednesday, March 29, 2017

Eligibility Requirements:

- Must be a past or current TASF scholar recipient and be in his or her current sophomore, junior or senior year of college
- Have a valid US Passport (must provide a copy of US passport with application)

For more information and to apply, please visit:

www.TAScholarshipFund.org

Questions or inquiries? Contact us:

(213) 624-6400 ext. 6 or info@tascholarshipfund.org